PRESS RELEASE

Mr. Gabriel Bover, Managing Director of Andalusia, delivering his acceptance speech.

“More than 30 years ago, Don Juan Lull had the vision to invest in Chiclana when this was more of a project than a reality. Now, 34 years after that vision in Novo Sancti Petri, we can clearly see that it was a great investment in the future.”

“This award recognizes the work of many people who, from our hotels, contribute every day to offering a high-quality experience to those who visit us and to strengthening the value of Cádiz as a destination,” he stated.

Hipotels’ presence in Andalusia reflects a long-term commitment to the tourism development of the province, with hotels located in privileged settings along the Cádiz coastline and a clear focus on the continuous improvement of both product and service.

This recognition from the Cádiz Tourism Forum highlights the role of tourism companies which, through the professionalism of their teams and the quality of their offering, contribute to positioning Cádiz as one of the leading tourism destinations in southern Europe.

About Hipotels Hotels & Resorts

For over 50 years, Hipotels Group has been at the forefront of tourism development in Mallorca, becoming one of the island’s largest hotel chains. Its founder, Mr. Juan Lull, shaped the company with his vision, betting on moderate expansion across Mallorca, Cádiz, Lanzarote, and Cancún. With a hotel portfolio in constant renovation, this development model has ensured close management based on long-term relationships with suppliers, customers, and employees.
