PRESS RELEASE

Lobby of the Hipotels Barrosa Palace in Chiclana de la Frontera.

During his speech, the Mayor highlighted that “Chiclana would not be what it is today without the confidence and vision that Hipotels placed in our destination more than three decades ago. Mr. Lull saw the potential of this land and invested in it with a spirit that has generated employment, prosperity, and opportunities for many families.”

For his part, Mr. Juan Lull expressed his gratitude, recalling the early days of Hipotels in Andalusia and the special bond he shares with Chiclana:

“This city is part of our story and our family. We have grown together, sharing values of effort, hospitality, and closeness. This recognition belongs to everyone who, through their work, has made this journey possible.”

With this inauguration, the City Council of Chiclana pays tribute to one of the leading figures in Andalusian and Balearic tourism, whose management model has always been an example of prudence, commitment, and respect for people and the environment.

About Hipotels Hotels & Resorts

For over 50 years, Hipotels Group has been at the forefront of tourism development in Mallorca, becoming one of the island’s largest hotel chains. Its founder, Mr. Juan Lull, shaped the company with his vision, betting on moderate expansion across Mallorca, Cádiz, Lanzarote, and Cancún. With a hotel portfolio in constant renovation, this development model has ensured close management based on long-term relationships with suppliers, customers, and employees.
